

The CAC Organizational Accreditation Program

Coaches Across Continents is proud to announce the first-ever global Organizational Accreditation Program in Purposeful Play and Education Outside the Classroom.

Becoming an accredited organization will improve your ability to create sustainable change based on the UNSDGs, to find and secure funding and award opportunities, to enhance brand reputation, and more.

Our accredited partners will receive additional support from Coaches Across Continents including substantial joint-funding opportunities, educational travel and leadership development, global recognition, and high-level networking.

There are two distinct levels: Accreditation and Advanced Accreditation. Your organization is automatically invited into the program, and Coaches Across Continents is committed to working with you to design a pathway towards accreditation status.

About Coaches Across Continents

Over the past decade, CAC has proven to be a leader in Purposeful Play and Education Outside the Classroom, garnering 26 different awards including Global Impact of the Year.

Working with thousands of organizations across 60+ countries, we have learned what makes them successful in creating social change in their communities and using Purposeful Play to impact the UN SDGs. Our accreditation program has evolved from this knowledge.

Our 28 year-round strategic resources will help your organization develop the skill sets, knowledge, methodologies and policies that are necessary to create the environment for sustainable change in your community.

Over 40% of last year's Beyond Sport winners were Coaches Across Continents' partners.

CAC Process Consultants will work with you on your Organizational Accreditation Pathway. Once successfully accredited, your status will be guaranteed for three years with the full support of Coaches Across Continents and unlock further exclusive opportunities. There is no timeline for completion and this is a voluntary, though strongly recommended, process to improve your organization's impact.
